

Black Dog Ride to the Red Centre

raising awareness of depression and suicide prevention

Saturday 17th August 2013

If you feel like a challenge and enjoy riding the open road, then you'll love this awesome adventure. Riders from all around Australia are heading to the Red Centre to raise community awareness of depression and suicide prevention.

SA – Wigley Reserve, Anzac Hwy, Glenelg

Lions breakfast starts 7.30am

Ride departs 8.30am

To make the Ride accessible to a wide range of riders we're offering three categories of Black Dog Rider:

Day Rider, Night Rider and Red ~~SORRY~~ Rider.

FULLY BOOKED

For more details and to register visit www.blackdogride.com.au

Proudly raising funds for Lifeline and Mental Health First Aid

Contact Paul 0437 383 998 or paul@jjcgroup.com.au